Midday Session

1. You went to the city park in this game session. What effects of Hurricane Dante did you observe there?

2. As Editor-in-Chief, you continue to ask your staff how they weathered the storm and how their families are doing. Why is it important to do this even though you are very busy dealing with reporting storm news?

3. LaDonna tells you that a downed power line caused an electrical fire on Lake Street. "It looks like something out of a war zone." Why does LaDonna compare Lake Street to a war zone?

4. When Teresa described what happened to her house and others near her during the storm, did you choose to ask her if she got pictures you could use in the magazine? Why, or why not?

5. Give an example of Port Douglas residents helping each other out in the aftermath of the storm. What source provided this information?
