

Looking For Lucky Sentence Strips

|   |  |
|---|--|
| Nikki was doing her homework.                      | Lucky was sleeping.   |
| Nikki was working.                                 | Lucky was running away.                                     |
| Nikki was looking all around her room.             | Moby was visiting the animal shelter.                       |
| Moby was talking to the owner of the shelter.      | Nikki was checking the living room.                         |
| Moby was asking the owner questions about Lucky.   | Nikki was looking in the kitchen.                           |
| I was trying to find Lucky in the supermarket.     | Ed was talking to the police officer at the police station. |
| I was searching in the supermarket.                | Ed was asking questions at the fire station.                |
| Ed was checking the hospital.                      | Fighter and I were walking to the library.                  |
| Fighter and I were looking around the bus station. | Moby was checking the park.                                 |
| Lucky was sleeping.                                | The friends were looking everywhere.                        |